

Core French Writing Assessment

Student: _____

Date: _____

WRITING	1-Emerging	2-Developing	3-Proficient	Extending
Ideas and Information Writes about familiar topics using a model	<input type="checkbox"/> very limited detail; model is copied; very repetitive	<input type="checkbox"/> includes some detail/ personalization; may add some new words	<input type="checkbox"/> lots of detail; will experiment with new vocabulary & phrases	<input type="checkbox"/> detailed & expressive; always experiments with new words & phrases
Accuracy	<input type="checkbox"/> very few structures are correct; difficult to discern meaning	<input type="checkbox"/> many structures are correct; some errors may affect meaning	<input type="checkbox"/> most structures are correct; minor errors do not affect meaning	<input type="checkbox"/> all structures are correct; errors are due to expanding vocabulary
Mechanics = spelling, punctuation capitalization, legibility	<input type="checkbox"/> mechanics hinder comprehension of message	<input type="checkbox"/> mechanics may interfere with meaning	<input type="checkbox"/> mechanics do not interfere with meaning	<input type="checkbox"/> mechanics enhance meaning

Notes:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____